Village Newsletter November 2018

The Post Bus visits Scruton every Tuesday and can be located in the Pub car park between 1430-1500.

The post lady has several regular customers, but more would be welcome!

FIELD OF REMEMBRANCE

From 1st November, there will be a Field of Remembrance on the Village Green. At its centre will be a rough wooden cross, similar to the ones used on the battlefield to mark temporary graves.

Everyone is invited to place a poppy or a small wooden cross there either in memory of a relative who lost his/her life in WW1 or in any other conflict or generally in memory of The Fallen.

If you wish to use a poppy from the bucket in church please put a minimum donation of £1 in the slot in the wall to the left of the door. The money raised will be donated to a military charity. Otherwise please feel free to use your own poppy or cross, bought or homemade.

Scruton Remembers

Together with towns and villages across the country, Scruton will commemorate 100 years since the ending of hostilities in the Great War.

Village Charity Christmas Card

Scruton's Village Charity Christmas card has again been produced by St Radegund's Church Council.

The card is available now from Joan Walker (748458) and will also be available at village events.

It is the 7" x 5" size, same as last year, priced at 6 for £5 or £1 each.

As well as copies on sale for individual purchase, the Village Card Signature Sheets* will be in Church from the beginning of November to the middle of December. Donations for signatures can be placed in the wall safe (by the Church door) or given to Joan Walker at village events.

This year the sales of signatures and of the cards themselves will be supporting two charities, The Royal British Legion and Help for Heroes.

 For those unfamiliar with this system or new to the village, we produce a card which goes into every letterbox bearing photocopied sheets of signatures of everyone who wants to send seasonal greetings to friends and neighbours in the village without doing individual cards. By 'buying a signature' in the village card, join in this great enterprise and help us raise even more funds for very worthy causes.*
